SECURITY ADVICE

- Instruct employees and family members to never open for strangers even if they state that they are police or health officials.
 - Rather, request their names (and force number where relevant) and their subsequent police station or department and call or visit the employer to verify their authenticity. Deny entry if not sure.
- Make sure to lock your doors and close your windows at night.
- Make sure to trim overgrown trees and cut down any overgrown grass in your yard and outside your property.
- If possible, move from a security fence or panelled wall to a brick wall with top guarding as the former are easy to cut through.
- For prompt assistance, press your panic button if you hear any strange sounds in your property
- Regularly test your panic button and alarm system to make sure that it is fully functional.

OUTLOOK

Crime is likely to remain constant as criminals target batteries from vehicles, gates and cellphone signal tower stations as well as money from people known to keep large amounts of money. As schools prepare to reopen, school administrators should avoid storing money on site as this will attract robbers to the site.

With the extension of curfew to midnight, residents should be wary of individuals loitering near their premises especially late at night. Motorists should avoid travelling late at night as the bad roads and lack of street lights make motorists more prone to smash and grab incidents.

Thank you for using Safeguard.
